

Feast of Mary, Mother of God, January 1st

This oldest feast of Mary, comes on the 8th day of the Octave of Christmas, the World Day of Peace and at the start of a new year. It is a powerful reminder to us of the presence of Mary in the life of the Church and in our lives. Mary is our mother, too, and we can turn to her in every moment of need, knowing that she will intercede with God for us. *Take time today to pause and think of what Mary means to you personally and to pray a Hail Mary. Mary, Mother of God, pray for us. Mary, Queen of Peace, pray for us. Mary, Helper of all in need, pray for us.

Feast of Epiphany, January 6th

Chalking the Door of the Home on Epiphany

An Epiphany tradition in parts of Europe is for people to write a special sign in chalk over their front door, as a reminder of the Magi that visited the baby Jesus. It's made using the year split in two, with the initials of the names that are sometimes given to the Magi, Caspar, Melchior and Balthazar, in the middle. So, 2025 is written as: 20+C+M+B+25. The initials CMB also stand for the Latin phrase, Christus mansionem benedicat: 'May Christ bless the house'. The inscription is performed as a request for Christ to bless the home and be with all those who dwell in it throughout the year.

Prayer as you chalk the lintel of your front door

Gather at the front door of your home.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

God of Light, bless our home. Make it a haven of rest for all in need of your warmth and care. Each time we go out from this place, may we never lose sight of that Epiphany star.

We mark our door with the symbols of the Magi. 20 + C + M + B + 25

May all who enter our home throughout the year find love and light; for Christ has come to dwell in this home and in our hearts. Amen.

Having marked your door you may now like to place the Magi figures at the crib while praying the following:

Loving Jesus, may we be like the Magi and always look for you in our lives.

Be with us, protect us and guide us. Help us to always show your love to one another and to all in need. Amen.

You may wish to conclude by singing or listening to a recording of 'We Three Kings' or another favourite Christmas Carol.

Keeping Christmas in the Home and Parish 2024

This Christmas the parish invites you to enter into the prayer of the traditional 12 days of Christmas and to mark these days in your home, as well as in our church. Families are invited to make time in the home for prayer and to visit the church for private prayer before the crib.

In recent years we have come to realise even more the importance of the 'domestic church' that is very much alive in homes across the parish and diocese. God is always with us when we pray and so, we are very happy to share with you some prayers for the home. They were produced by Faith Development Services and the Diocesan Commission for Liturgical Formation. We hope you will use them over the Christmas season. And we look forward to you joining us in the parish for the celebrations that mark the season of Christmas.

This leaflet contains the following prayers for use in the home over Christmas:

- + Christmas Eve – Prayer for placing figure of Jesus in the crib
- + Christmas Day – Prayer before your Family Christmas Meal
- + Feast of the Holy Family – A Family Prayer
- + A Prayer for the Jubilee Year of Hope
- + Feast of Mary, Mother of God (January 1) – Prayer suggestion
- + Epiphany – Prayer for chalking your front door and placing Magi at the crib

May the blessing of Christmas bring God's peace, love, healing, joy and hope to your homes and hearts this year, and to our world.

Christmas Eve, December 24th

Placing Jesus in the Crib on Christmas Eve Night

There is a lovely tradition of placing the figure of the baby Jesus in the crib on Christmas Eve, before children go to bed. Often the youngest member of the household gets this honour! If you have had the figure blessed and have wrapped it as a present under the tree, it can now be unwrapped as the first gift of Christmas and taken to where the crib is in the home.

Prayer at the Crib

The youngest member of the family holds the infant figure during this prayer.
In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Loving God,
as we look upon our family crib, we thank you for all who are part of the Christmas story and part of our story, too.
As we look upon these animals, we thank you for the gift of creation and the beauty of the world you have made.
We thank you for the shepherds and we remember that it was they who were looked down on by society who were the first to hear the good news of Christmas.
We thank you for Mary and for Joseph, who trusted in you and did what you asked. And finally, we thank you for the gift of Jesus, your Son and our brother, who was born like us, lived like us, struggled like us, and who has shown us how to be fully human. As we place this figure of Jesus in our crib may it be a sign of Your presence in our lives.

The figure can be placed in the crib at this point.

O Emmanuel, we rejoice that you are with us.
Stay with us, protect us, and guide us as a family,
free us from any worry and let your love grow in our hearts and in our home over these Christmas days and beyond. Amen.

You may wish to conclude by singing or listening to a recording of 'Away in a Manger' or another favourite Christmas carol.

Feast of the Nativity, Christmas Day, December 25th

A Prayer before your Family Christmas Meal

Loving God, on this Christmas day we give thanks that Jesus, your Son, has come into our world bringing us gifts of peace and joy. Bless us as we sit down together at this table for our Christmas meal. Bless the food we share and help us to remember those who are hungry. Be with our neighbours and our friends, those who are lonely, sick or away from home. We pray that our departed loved ones may sit now at your table in heaven. May the joy of this feast give us strength and light, now and in the days ahead. Amen.

Feast of the Holy Family, Sunday, December 29th

A Prayer for the Family God, our Father, in this Jubilee Year of Hope, we turn to you in prayer for our family and for families throughout the world. We are brothers and sisters in Jesus your Son, one family, in the Spirit of your love. Bless us with the joy of love. Make us patient and kind, gentle and generous, welcoming to those in need. Help us to live your forgiveness and peace. Protect all families with your loving care, especially those for whom we now pray. (pause) Increase our faith, strengthen our hope, keep us safe in your love, make us always grateful for the gift of life that we share. This we ask, through Christ our Lord. Amen. Mary, mother and guide; pray for us. Saint Joseph, father and protector; pray for us. Saints Joachim and Anne; pray for us. Saints Louis and Zélie Martin; pray for us.

The JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE opens across the world today, 29 December. Bishop Denis will open the year at the 7 pm Evening Mass in the Cathedral. Pope Francis has shared this prayer for use today and throughout the Jubilee.

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen
